

Elsewhere, metal sculptor Richard J. Prazan of Taylorsville received the $1,000 Best of Program Award from the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation of Cleveland for the 11-foot-tall "Nut-cracker" soldiers he, his wife and sons fabricated to stand in front of Symphony Hall last Christmas. The soldiers were made in six weeks, each holding a different musical instrument. 20 July 1986

● UNIVERSITY OF UTAH composer David Froom has been appointed to the national advisory board of the League of Composers/International Society for Contemporary Music.